The Women's Caucus for Art will conduct a series of panels and workshops during the annual meeting of the College Art Association at the Hilton Hotel in Chicago, February 1-4, 1976. In addition to the following program events, the Caucus will host a cash bar in the Women's Caucus Center, located on the ground floor of the hotel, on the evening of February 1, from 5:30 to 7:30, and will maintain the Center continuously through the convention for the sale and distribution of publications related to women in the arts and for the use and convenience of Caucus members.

Sunday, February 1, 3 - 5 P.M. Changing the Art World Structure. A panel co-chaired by Cindy Nemser (editor, Feminist Art Journal); Dorothy Gillespie (artist, founder of New York Women's Interart Center); Alice Baber (artist, New York); and Diane Burko (artist, Philadelphia, organizer of Philadelphia FOCUS).

Monday, February 2, 12 noon - 2 P.M. Women's Caucus for Art, business meeting.

Monday, February 2, 4:30 - 6 P.M. Women Scholars in the Arts: an informal progress meeting of contributors to an anthology now in preparation. Co-editors: Claire R. Sherman and Adele M. Holcomb.

Tuesday, February 3, 12 noon - 2 P.M. Androgynous Aspects of Art. A panel chaired by Mary Stoppert (artist, Northeastern Illinois University), with Jean Gillies (art historian, Northeastern Illinois University) and two other panelists.

Tuesday, February 3, 4:30 - 6:30 P.M. Women in Museums: How to Succeed By Really Trying. A panel co-chaired by H. Diane Russell (National Gallery of Art) and Bernice Davidson (The Frick Collection). Four panelists to be added.

Wednesday, February 4, 9:30 - 11:30 A.M. Ideas and Methods in Feminist Education. A workshop conducted by Ruth Iskin and Arlene Raven (Center for Feminist Art Historical Studies, Los Angeles).
